“The event is very well organized. I covered several important meetings and achieved advanced business goals - all in one day at the fair!”
Solomon Gahtan, Vice President Business Development, Biopharmax

“It’s a good opportunity for so many companies in the MENA region to come and meet with potential suppliers. There are not many events that cater to this purpose.”
Gokhan Kose, Business Development Manager, Nobel

Feature highlights

Bio Conference

The CPhI Istanbul Bio Conference took place across the three days of the event. Free-to-attend for visitors the conference held an average of 200 delegates each day. With an agenda specifically curated to focus on the bio pharma industry in the region, the Bio Conference hosted an array of speakers who discussed many aspects of this growing and evolving region.

The various key note speeches and panel discussions featured speakers from countries such as Turkey, Saudi Arabia, Ethiopia and Jordan, representing companies such as Hikma Astra Zeneca and Amgen.

With a specifically tailored programme to reflect industry trends and high level speakers on the agenda, the Bio Conference attracted 945 delegates across the three days of the main exhibition.

Women’s Networking Meet-Up

This event, which coincided with International Women’s Day, brought together the female pharma executives from across the MENA region to share experiences, trade knowledge and network with likeminded professionals.

This mini event, hosted by Fortune Turkey, further cemented women’s role as leaders.

Hosted Buyer Programme

In partnership with the Turkish Ministry of the Economy, CPhI Istanbul’s Hosted Buyer Programme was the most successful edition to date. With this programme, the accommodation and daily costs of eligible applicants was covered by the Ministry.

With its highest participation to date, this value-adding programme attracted 47 delegates from Azerbaijan, Bulgaria, Cameroon, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Macedonia, Malaysia, Palestine and Uzbekistan.
